Following the funeral of President Kennedy and after a conference with the White House, the conclusion was reached that a Court of Inquiry should be conducted in Texas to develop fully and disclose openly the facts pertaining to the assassination of President Kennedy, the serious wounding of Governor Connally, the murder of Dallas police officer J. REPORT TO
GOVERNOR JOHN B. CONNALLY OF TEXAS

FROM
ATTORNEY GENERAL WAGGONER CARR
REGARDING THE EVENTS IN DALLAS
OF NOVEMBER 22, 1963, AND SUBSEQUENT THERETO

I deem it appropriate to supplement the report of the Warren Commission with explanatory comments directed primarily to you and my fellow Texans.

Following the funeral of President Kennedy and after a conference with the White House, the conclusion was reached that a Court of Inquiry should be conducted in Texas to develop fully and disclose openly the facts pertaining to the assassination of President Kennedy, the serious wounding of Governor Connally, the murder of Dallas police officer J. D. Tippitt, as well as such other events growing out of these tragedies as are appropriately the subject of investigation by a Court of Inquiry. There were impelling reasons for such an investigation, among them being the recognition prominently participated in the preparation of this report and approve it as herein presented above.

Finally, I wish to say to you that we and all Texans owe a deep debt of gratitude to the two distinguished members of the State Bar who so unselfishly answered my request for assistance as Special Counsel in this investigation. Mr. Leon Jaworski and Dean Robert G. Storey have given many hours of their time. Without their invaluable counsel and assistance, our work could not have been so thorough nor complete.

(2) The second phase of the investigation would be conducted by the Texas Court of Inquiry which was to be called as soon as the state could make adequate preparation following the report of the FBI to the President. In this phase, the agencies of the Federal government, including, of course, the FBI, were to cooperate with the Texas authorities by making all evidence in their possession available and by submitting witnesses under their control who resided outside of Texas and were beyond the reach of a Texas subpoena. This would result in all available witnesses being interrogated in detail in an open hearing.

(3) The final phase was to be undertaken by a commission to be appointed by the President. This commission, possessed of all the facts developed by the Federal agencies, as well as the Court of Inquiry, would arrive at its findings and conclusions.

To assist in the discharge of our part in these joint responsibilities, I selected special counsel to assist me. Members of my staff and my special counsel joined me in consideration of the city in which the inquiry would be conducted and in resolving other questions preliminary to the hearing.

President Johnson then announced the creation of the Presidential Special Commission. In his announcement, the President stated that this Commission should take into consideration all of the facts developed by all investigative agencies, as well as testimony from the Texas Court of Inquiry. Thereupon I was requested by the Department of Justice to come to Washington for further conference on the effective coordination of effort in the pursuit of this investigation. At the conference with Chief Justice Warren, the Chairman of the Commission, the following request was made by him on behalf of the Commission and later delivered to me in writing:

"The President's Commission has asked me to respond to your full and courteous letter of December 5th in which you describe the proposed work of the Texas Court of Inquiry. The Commission greatly appreciates your desire to facilitate its work and to help to insure that an accurate and responsible report with respect to all of the relevant facts be made to the President.

"All of the members of the Commission are aware of the deep interest of Texas in the tragic event which occurred there and with respect to which all of us are exercising the responsibilities laid upon us. We share your view that it is desirable to have State officials do everything possible to uncover all the facts, and are appreciative of the availability of these facts to the Commission.

"As you know, at this time the Commission is organizing its procedures and we do not yet have available the comprehensive report of the FBI and of other investigative agencies both Federal and State. While we expect to receive this material soon, it will take time to analyze it thoroughly, and I am sure you will agree that there may remain matters which will require further investigation before we feel that we are in possession of all of the relative data upon which to make evaluation and judgment. We are most anxious, as I am sure you are, to take no steps which could impede investigation or which could lead the public to mistaken conclusions based upon partial factual information. In addition, as you point out in your letter, the Commission, as well as the Texas Court of Inquiry, must be extremely careful not to prejudice in any way the trial in Texas of Jack Ruby.

"The Commission would not wish to interfere in any way with you or other State authorities in the conduct of matters which are your responsibilities, and in which, as you point out, the State of Texas has a proper and important interest. At the same time, it is the view of the Commission, for the reasons stated above, that a public inquiry in Texas at this time might be more harmful than helpful in our mutual search for the truth. Recognizing that the timing of this Inquiry is your responsibility and your decision, we cannot refrain from the suggestion that you consider the wisdom of postponement of this Court.

"It would be the Commission's desire that you and your Special Counsel, or either of you, participate in the Commission's work, and counsel with it, it being the Commission's wish that you as the representative of the State of Texas be fully advised of the progress that is made in the course of the Commission's investigation and advance such suggestions as you consider helpful to the accomplishment of the Commission's assignment. It may develop that [] of a separate and independent investigation through [] the medium of a Court of Inquiry. I therefore an[] nounced my conclusion to withhold the Court of [] Inquiry for the time being and accepted the invi[] tation of the Warren Commission to attend their [] hearings and assist in the fulfillment of its important [] responsibilities. I am now pleased to report that [] subsequent events have vindicated the propriety and [] advisability of this decision.

[] From the time that the Warren Com[] mission began its work, my special counsel and I [] have complied with every request for assistance to [] the Commission and its staff, including among others
[] the following:

[] 1. Assembling and submitting [] investigative reports, statements of witness[] es, data, etc., gathered under the supervision [] of city and county officials of Dallas.

[] 2. Serving as liaison between [] the Commission and the city and county of[] ficials of Dallas, arranging for interviews of [] Dallas witnesses and the taking of their [] testimony.

[] In addition, we have attended ses[] sions of the Commission for the taking of testimony [] and have kept abreast of the progress of the in[] vestigation and all material developments. Most re-

[] Commission finding that there was no connection [] between Lee Harvey Oswald and Jack Ruby in the [] matter of the assassination.

[] So far as I have been able to determine, the Warren Commission has explored fully [] all available avenues of information and has left [] no stone unturned in an effort to ascertain the full [] truth. I have been considerably impressed by the [] resourcefulness and exhaustiveness of its labors.
[] Based on the information gained from the investigation, [] I have not the slightest hesitancy in concurring
[] in the conclusion of the Warren Commission [] that

[] (1) Lee Harvey Oswald was [] the assassin of President Kennedy and fired
[] the shots that wounded Governor Connally, [] and killed Officer J. D. Tippit.

[] (2) The acts of Lee Harvey
[] Oswald were not pursuant to any conspiracy, [] domestic or foreign, to assassinate President [] Kennedy.

[] It is with much satisfaction that I [] note the findings of the Warren Commission that [] Oswald was not subjected to any type of mistreatment [] while in the custody of Texas officials and [] that his constitutional right to counsel was fully [] preserved. The undisputed facts are that Oswald

[] not only was advised of his right to obtain counsel
[] of his choice on several occasions, but the President [] of the Dallas Bar Association, Honorable Louis [] Nichols, called on Oswald and offered to obtain [] counsel for him, if he so desired.

[] I take great pride in the assistance [] that the Dallas officials, including the law enforce[] ment officers, have rendered to the Warren [] Commission and to me in this undertaking. They [] responded in the highest tradition of trustworthy
[] and efficient public officials. It should be re[] membered that these officials, law enforcement [] officers, and other Dallas citizens, endured many [] hardships during the dark days immediately fol[] lowing the day of assassination — days filled with [] abuse and suspicion from many sources. Their re[] sponsible acts of leadership and courage in guiding [] a great city through this crushing experience has [] gained the respect and admiration of all under[] standing people.

[] Oswald, having spent a considerable [] amount of his adult years in Russia, espoused the [] Marxist cause and denounced the American way of [] life while both in Russia and the United States.
[] He was an enemy of the political philosophy of [] Texas. The evidence clearly refutes the early insin[] uations emanating in some quarters that the political philosophy of Dallas was responsible for this tragedy.

So far as is known to me or my special counsel there are no untapped sources of information in the assembling of all material facts pertaining to the assassination of President Kennedy. There is no useful purpose therefore in the convening of a Court of Inquiry. Should it develop at any time in the future that further investigation into this matter by a Court of Inquiry is indicated, a Court will be convened.

THE RULE OF LAW IN CRISIS

Great crises are a supreme test of the rule of law. History is replete with the collapse of law when grave events occur. World War I was touched off by the assassination of a prince. The Communists came to power in 1917 when law and order failed. Hitler became the master of Germany and Europe and a threat to the peace of the entire world when he suspended constitutional freedoms under the pretext of an emergency. Scores of presidents have been banished, arrested or killed in recent decades, their power often seized by the military.

The assassination of President Kennedy, the grave wounds of Governor Connally and

[] subsequent events in Dallas caused a severe strain [] upon the rule of law, both federal and state. But [] we as a nation and state are grateful that there [] was an orderly transition within the federal gov[] ernment and a continuity of executive functions in [] our Texas affairs.

[] It was a simple but dramatic mo[] ment when Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson took [] the oath of office as President of the United States [] in the same airplane that brought President Ken[] nedy and him to Dallas, within an hour after Pres[] ident Kennedy had expired in a nearby hospital.

[] Shortly after the oath was adminis[] tered by Judge Sarah T. Hughes in the presence of [] a few friends and officials, including Mrs. Jacque[] line Kennedy, still clad in the same blood-stained [] suit she was wearing when she held her husband [] in the last few minutes of his life, President John[] son ordered the plane, bearing the body of Pres[] ident Kennedy to Washington. As the mighty jet [] roared to the Capitol at six hundred miles per hour, [] the government began to function smoothly and [] effectively. Thus, the abrupt change of chief execu[] tives of a mighty nation epitomized the effective [] function of the rule of law as prescribed under our [] Constitution, which has existed longer than the con[] stitution of any other nation.

[] to them. The legal profession has not succeeded in explaining it perhaps because it has been too busy with ad hoc issues and winning cases."

[] Not only should we of the legal profession assume a more active role in educating the people, but the news media, educators and others should join in this effort of helping the public to be properly informed of the operation of the rule of law and should participate actively in the dissemination of its significance.

[] The Right of Fair Trial

[] One of our most cherished fundamental guarantees under our Bill of Rights is the right of a fair, impartial and prompt trial for all persons charged with crime. The elements of such a fair trial are spelled out in the Fifth and Sixth Amendments of the United States Constitution and in our Texas Constitution. They include the necessity for a Grand Jury indictment for a capital or other wise infamous crime; restrictions against double jeopardy; no compulsion of the accused to testify against himself; guarantee of due process of law; the right of jury trial; information of the nature and cause of accusation; and compulsory attendance of witnesses. Another basic right of the accused is the presumption of innocence and that his guilt must be established beyond a reasonable doubt before conviction.

Our basic and unalienable rights would be "tinkling cymbals and sounding brass" if every citizen, when in jeopardy, is not afforded adequate protection of his basic rights as guaranteed by the Bill of Rights of our United States and Texas Constitution.

The modern facilities of the news media caused the events in Dallas, in particular the Oswald assassination and the Ruby trial, to become topics of discussion for people throughout the world, from the heads of state to the most isolated individuals.

We are justly proud of the right of a fair and public trial. However, the Founding Fathers who wrote the Bill of Rights obviously never dreamed that science would advance so far as to extend the meaning of the word "public" to "worldwide." They were seeking to prevent, and rightly so, secret trials or "star chamber" proceedings.

Pressures Upon the Rule of Law

Immediately following the arrest of Lee Harvey Oswald and after the arrest of Jack Ruby, the orderly procedures of the rule of law

[] were placed under severe strain and unusual de[] mands in three particulars:

[] 1. The news media — radio, [] television, reporters and special writers —
[] virtually took charge of the entrances, hall-[] ways and public rooms of the city jail be[] fore Lee Harvey Oswald was placed in jail.
[] By the time the prisoner, Oswald, entered [] the jail under heavy guard, radio equipment, [] television cables, special wires, cameras and [] other auxiliary equipment were being in[] stalled by the technicians of the news media.
[] More than a hundred news media personnel [] had set up temporary facilities and work[] shops in the hallways. Much of this person[] nel was from other parts of the Nation and [] foreign countries and had little, if any, un[] derstanding of Texas legal procedure. These [] conditions continued throughout the time
[] Oswald was confined in jail, until his death [] on the morning of November 24, and after [] the confinement of Ruby. The City Manager [] and Chief of Police concluded that if an at[] tempt had been made to remove the news [] media and their equipment, hard feelings and [] chaos would have resulted.

[] 2. While local officials recog[] nize that subsequent events, including the killing of Oswald by Ruby during an attempted transfer from the City Jail to the County Jail, magnified the deficiency in security measures, they do not accept the full responsibility for such conditions, because of the fact that they had no knowledge whatever of Lee Harvey Oswald and his background until after the assassination on November 22, when they were advised of his presence in Dallas and his past activities by the Federal authorities.

3. Interviews and comments elicited by the news media from police officers and the prosecuting attorneys concerning the facts and legal issues were made public before arraignment or indictment of the suspects. Mass media coverage of the verdict of the jury was allowed, with permission of the Court, in the Ruby trial; and the opportunity was provided for the leading defense counsel to seize the microphones from cooperative news media in the courtroom and, in a vindictive manner, castigate the jury, judiciary, and the City of Dallas with discredit to himself and the legal profession, of which he is a member.

[] It is recommended that:

[] 1. This report with the exhibits be filed in the Archives of Texas.

[] 2. Representatives of the State Bar of Texas, the news media, and local and state officials take appropriate steps to establish a fair and satisfactory working relationship designed to prevent future disorder and confusion in pre-trial activities, deficiencies in security for prisoners, as well as to improve judicial ethics in criminal trials.

[] 3. Appropriate representatives of the various federal, state, and local law enforcement agencies in Texas conduct a thorough study for the improvement of coordination and exchange of information concerning criminal or subversive suspects and recommend ways and means of improving security measures for the protection of the President, other high officials and distinguished guests while visiting our state.

[] My Special Counsel, Mr. Leon Jaworski, former President of the State Bar of Texas, Houston; and, Dean Robert G. Storey, former President of the American Bar Association, Dallas, have
